'SOCCER' GOES NORTH

Tomorrow this paper takes another step forward when it appears in Newcastle as the official organ of the Federation and the official programme in that area.

We have already been appearing in the area, but this will be the first occasion that the "green paper" will appear on northern fields.

We will be happy to continue serving soccer in the Newcastle area and fervently hope that all clubs, whether senior or junior, will take advantage of the paper to help promote soccer in their districts.

This paper will be available not only on the grounds, but also in newsagents, bookstalls and street corners — taking soccer to the people and inviting them to share in the thrills of this exciting and spectacular world sport.

The boys who did it!

Scottish tourists return to Sydney

Hearts are back with us after a successful visit to the north.

So far they are undefeated and most of their games have been won by a wide margin.

They have thrilled crowds wherever they went by their fast, devastating game.

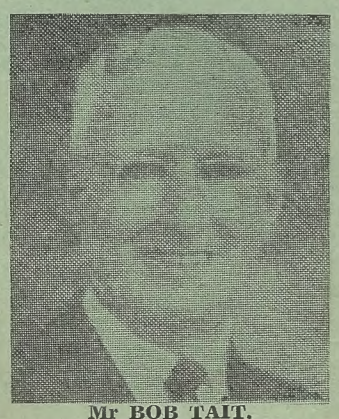
What a change has come over Scottish soccer in the past few years.

Their game has been speeded up to the extent where the old slow-pattern play has evolved into a fast, precision game.

All this has been brought about by the influence of Continental football, which came to the top by co-ordinating ball control, physical fitness and technique to a high degree.

Hearts game with Australia this weekend should not see them seriously extended which, from the public's point of view, is rather unfortunate.

Mr WILSON STRACHAN, vice-chairman of Hearts



Mr BOB TAIT, one of Heart's directors

This week's edition casts the shadow of things to come — a shortage of green paper.

After this week, "Soccer" will be temporarily forced to rely on white newsprint because of delays in receiving supplies of green paper from overseas.

But it still will be the "green paper" in character, if not in appearance.

We regret having to make the switch, and will endeavor to give you back your familiar "green" paper as quickly as possible.

Triumph for bold, progressive policy

What a tremendous triumph last Saturday was for soccer in Australia, and especially for those people within the Federation of Soccer Clubs, who saw such a future for the game many years ago.

Sure, we didn't beat the world's best, but what a major boost it has given to the Federation.

The representative Squad, inaugurated by the Federation, has come to stay in this part of the world.

It was advocated by some administrators more than 15 years ago.

The cost of the squad's training has been more than returned — not it actual cash, but in future development and prestige for soccer in this country.

Any teams touring this country now will have to be of a high standard, which in turn will have effect of lifting our soccer to a Number One sport.

The Federation squad could now be sent to Indonesia, Singapore, Vietnam, Ceylon and Hongkong.

This tour would be an ideal preparation for a tour of Israel, Egypt, Turkey, Greece and Malta.

Next would come South Africa, followed by Europe, then Great Britain, which should take about eight years.

All this, of course, is only possible if the present administrators are farsighted enough and take steps to implement plans to this end.

IN THE "GOOD" OLD DAYS

Certain sections of the Sydney Press were wide of the mark in their recent reports of activities within the Federation.

Only one paper, the Daily Mirror, was "on the ball".

One writer painted a gloomy picture — we were "split asunder", "gloom hangs over us", "the widest rift etc." — accruing from a distorted opinion through lack of knowledge of Federation happenings.

This writer who, by the way, never attends a meeting of either Managament Committee or Council had the temerity to suggest that there were certain "troublemakers" within the organisation and that they would "soon be weeded out".

Unanimous

A most amazing statement when you consider that far-reaching decisions made recently were unanimous at both Management and Council meetings.

Now let us aquaint you with happenings in the past in-so-far as the old "regime" was concerned.

There existed a "Big Four", made up of two Association members a newspaperman and a national representative.

Between them they more or less "ran" soccer in Australia.

In return for his support of a decadent body, the newspaperman merely had to lift the phone to get all the information he wanted.

He could "select" representative teams days before the selectors met and sure enough

TEAM of the WEEK

Every week an A and B team will be selected from the best players in First Division teams.

The best A team player will be nominated as the "Player of the Week" and will score three points.

All other A team nominations will receive two points and B team players one point.

The player with the highest number of points at the end of the season will automatically become Player of the Year.

Ampol Cup fixtures, Federation Cup matches and the competition semi-finals, final and grand-final will not be taken into account.

Here are the players who stood out in last weekend's two rounds of matches.

Player of the Week
BILL HUME

Gladesville's newly imported New Zealand centre forward gave a copy-book display in his first 'Federation match and played a prominent part in his team's big win over Auburn; his intelligent touches and clever openings were outstanding and as he is an opportunist as well it looks as if his club has at last found the top forward it so badly needs.

Bill Hume has all the qualities required to take him to the top in NSW soccer and his New Zealand experience should make him one of the Competition's finest centre forwards.

PROGRESS POINTS

PROGRESS POINTS: G. Vasvary (APIA) 11 points, P. Peters (Corrimal) 8 points, J. Pretswell (Gladesville), J. De Pyper (Syd. Austral), R. Burns (Corrimal), R. Young (Corrimal) each 7.

ROUND BALL TALK

SORRY TO KEEP harping about the maladministration of Australian soccer, but we must have a crack at those who would have the Federation in a similar way if they got their way.

The Australian XI took the field with Ipswich's colors in Brisbane because they did not have uniform to take the field with.

The worst part of it is that Ipswich played in these outfits in the early game and they were all wet and soggy with "sweat".

HAKOAH HAVE CONCEDED only one goal in their last six games, which speaks volumes for their defence.

If they had only some good forwards they would be one of the State's strongest teams.

WALTER STERNBERG has been out of action because of illness.

We hope he will be back on deck shortly and in good health.

It was mainly due to his efforts that the Costa Ricans are here.

For no possible gain to himself he stood to lose thousands of pounds — most of the legal and financial guarantees rested on his shoulders.

MAX GOLD travelling with the Costa Ricans paid us a great tribute.

His comments on the Green Paper: "The best soccer paper I have seen anywhere in the world".

He was even more amazed when he heard that a few enthusiasts did it in their spare time for no monetary gain what-so-ever.

THIRROUL LEAGUES CLUB entertained the Costa Ricans and the Federation in their modern club rooms after the South Coast fixture last Sunday.

It was a magnificent welcome in beautiful surroundings.

It was all at the expense of our rival code, Rugby League.

Thank you, Thirroul Leagues Club.

Trans-Tasman phone call

Gladesville's overseas deal

Gladesville may have missed out on the early limelight surrounding some of the glamor clubs, but it has been working quietly to build up one of the State's strongest teams.

In addition to the four internationals recently acquired, Gladesville made a spectacular move to "outbid" several of Sydney's "big money" clubs.

We recently reported a trans-Tasman telephone call by President Johnny Thomson to Bill Hume in New Zealand.

Well, you all know the result — Hume arrived last Thursday, played on Sunday and banged home three great goals.

The club aims to build a forward line to match its outstanding defence.

Gladesville was subjected to much criticism over a recent encounter with Prague, and in reply point out that it takes two teams to make a game and it is the coach's prerogative to determine how his particular team will play.

The club is hoping for some adjustment to fixtures in the second half of the programme that might overcome teams having to meet opponents on the same ground twice.

Sunday games preview

By L. Gautier

Canterbury, which has had its last two matches deferred, will have to be flat out if it is to topple Sydney Austral in this week's "match of the day" at the E. S. Marks Field.

Austral is equal second on the competition table, but has its four toughest games ahead.

Its coming displays will be keenly followed as giving a real indication of the team's strength and its chances to make the final four.

Sydney Austral were never quite extended last week, but centre half Evans, inside right Vrolyks and Osfield were excellent and should thoroughly test the strong Canterbury side.

If the nippy Berries forwards can be subdued then I would favor Sydney Austral to win.

But I somehow expect CANTERBURY to have the edge slightly on their more solid, but less imaginative, opponents.

One thing is assured — fans will see 90 minutes of very good football by two of the State's top teams.

Curry's magnificent displays against the Costa Ricans stamp him as Australia's best centre half.

He should prove a stumbling-block for young Esser, who has a great heart, but lacks the "finesse" to enable him to weave through tight defences like the one Sydney Austral is likely to face from Curry, North and the two new International reps Ron Brown and Eddie Jones, last week's surprise-packet at left full back against Costa Rica.

Lambert Park fans should see a thriller in the APIA—Budapest clash, but it is difficult to forecast anything, but a win for APIA, who are a very classy team with a wealth of talent.

This match should provide eye-catching pattern soccer, as both teams favor the Continental style of football.

But because the home team's defence is so much stronger, I think Budapest will find APIA beyond them, especially if Voros is still kept in the seconds.

The former South Australian's form has been shocking lately, but on his day he can be deadly.

He has the speed to out-run any defender in the competition and could be a definite proposition on the wing if he could keep his head under pressure and played in position instead of roving so much.

Schopf made auspicious comeback after four weeks suspension.

He worked tiressly, though perhaps he overdid it a little in "stealing" balls from his team-mates.

J. CURRY

The former Austrian Olympian is a good player, there can be no doubt about it, but why must so much of his tackling be illegal?

Schopf is definitely indispensable if the Budapest defence is to prove a match-winning factor, which it has not so far.

The clash between Vasvary and Schopf should be one of the many highlights of Sunday's Lambert Park fixture.

Marston will have to improve on his recent "international" appearances if he is to master the raw-boned, lanky Galambos.

The Leichhardt team put on a great performance before the largest crowd of the season at MacArthur Park when it convincingly beat Granville 3—1.

Once again Vasvary spearheaded the attack, but de Paoli's thrusts were the more dangerous and completely off-balanced an otherwise remarkable Granville defence, where Cuneen and Hawkins had a field day.

Old rivals Auburn and Bankstown meet at Mona Park Auburn and as both teams cannot afford to lose anymore I expect this match to develop into an unrelenting struggle.

Auburn were trounced 6—0 by Gladesville last Sunday, when only Quested and Morrow showed true form.

The team went to pieces after a very even first 35 minutes.

The forwards thoroughly tested Hough, but lacked finish in front of goal.

Against Bankstown they cannot afford to have an "off day", as the "Towns are getting stronger with every match and should be a much improved team on Sunday.

I think Bankstown will give Auburn a very hard game, but the home team must win this game, and many more, if they are to come up on the competition table and regain their "top team" status, which has received quite a jolt these past weeks.

Thus I am tipping AUBURN to win, but Bankstown may take full advantage of their opponents unexpected bad patch and pull a surprise.

RON BROWN

They know Auburn well and will certainly have a plan to upset the locals.

The North Side—Granville match should be a most interesting one as both teams are a blend of seasoned and young players.

A win for North would put them on equal footing with their opponents.

There is little to chose between the teams, but I am going for GRANVILLE, who might prove stronger in defence, though I feel the North Side forwards, led by Wong and Walker, could outshine their opponents.

North Side had a bye last week, but their showing against APIA the previous week was quite good.

If Butchovich can reproduce the form he displayed a few years ago, when he was one of Sydney's top players, then Walker, Wong and Co have enough tricks in the bag to upset Cuneen and his boys.

I picked Granville to win the match because, as I have already written, their backs and halves are stronger — with Linder a tough customer in goal —— and also because they have beaten good teams and put up some really grand displays.

Granville have been beaten, but never disgraced as their goal-average shows.

Young McIntyre, who is only 18, was playing in the Thirds six weeks ago and after only a week in the Reserves gained a first team berth, which he should keep for years.

Hungarian Platzna could develop into a useful player, but is obviously not yet accustommed to Federation tempo.

Cuneen has confirmed the great hopes placed in him and could be best in a few years from now.

One thing is certain, with Curry, Madden, Marston, Walsh and now Cuneen, the Federation has Australia's top centre halves.

The farce goes on

The following article written by Owen Howard was published in the Melbourne Sporting Globe under the heading, "Vic. ARE champions".

Apparently Australian soccer selectors believe that New South Wales has taken over the mantle of the champion soccer State in Australia.

When selecting the Australian team to play Heart of Midlothian in Sydney last week, they evidently forgot that Victoria is the holder of the FA Cup, donated to the champion State.

Victoria won the cup last year from Queensland after that State had beaten NSW — yet not one Victorian was selected to represent Australia.

The Australian team — against the visitors. soundly thrashed by Hearts to the tune of 7—1 — included eight players from NSW and three from Queensland.

How can the selectors justify calling a team like that Australia.

Will there be eight Victorians in the Australian team to play Hearts in Melbourne on May 30?

I very much doubt it!

Hearts gave them a soccer lesson — and no wonder.

Victoria could beat that team also.

Don't let's kid ourselves about these international matches.

These visitors are champions, so let's treat them as champions.

When they play against Australia, put our best possible team against them and forget petty interstate jealousy.

2nd Division

Concordia scored a 3:2 win over Dalmatinac last Sunday at Liverpool and now shares first place on the Second Division competition table with Pan Hellenic and Neerlandia.

Dalmatinac in this game suffered its first defeat on its own ground for one and half years.

Concordia fielded new acquisitions, E. Aulerich (from APIA) and R. Krause (Gladesville.

Concordia attacked strongly from the start, with Dalmatinac pinning its hopes on a defence, in which centre half Novak stood out.

Shortly before half time W. Niess scored from a corner-kick

After half time a beautiful low drive from right winger R. Krause made the score 2:0.

Dalmatinac fought back and Concordia defence had to concede a goal.

A penalty against Concordia brought the equaliser for Dalmatinac.

The tempo and tension rose with the referee trying hard to keep control.

Concordia s right full back, E. Lind, and Dalmatinac's left winger were sent off for allegedly kicking.

Concordia fought back in this critical period until a penalty gave them the winning goal.

Sydney prepares for age - groups State championships

By "SPOTLIGHT"

Sydney Junior Associations are beginning preparations for th State titles, which are run in Under 10, 12, 14, 16 and 18 age groups A grades.

Manly-Warringah has high hopes in the A grade, and has entered for the first time for some years.

Quality of some of the junior sides was typified by the Granville-Canterbury juniors the other week at Sydney Sports Ground.

Last year Bankstown Oval, was location of the metropolitan finals.

Much credit goes to both the Bankstown seniors, led by Mr Harry Bartlett, and the juniors, headed by Mr Jim Wolveridge and Mr V. Bray, for a well conducted day.

Marching displays

The Sydney finals this year could be conducted in conjunction with marching displays.

If this is organised and a suitable central ground is made available by a First Division club, then all records for standard of play, attendance, and public interest could be well eclipsed.

Mr R. Tait, of the Hearts team, has advised Australian junior teams to seek maximum coaching help from senior clubs.

Mr Tait pointed out that Hearts players are regularly made available to Edinburgh junior clubs to improve their standard.

He also thought that there would be plenty of room for co-operation between senior and junior clubs in the arranging of non-clash fixtures in the various districts.

In Edinburgh, he said, many junior clubs now have floodlighting.

If Hearts had an afternoon game, then the junior clubs played at night to avoid a clash.

Sydney Associations could well adopt this principle in arranging an end-of-season floodlit competition for A grade and juniors.

New players and clubs are welcome to contact their district secretary at any stage of the season.

Many Associations can arrange to accept teams right through to the end of the season.

Competition draws are so arranged that this can be done.

Also, parents of young players looking for the team to play with are asked to make immediate contact.

For the third weekend running, the Granville District Junior Association will conduct matchds of the day at MacArthur Park, this Saturday.

The matches-of-the-day selection committee have chosen four games which should provide a feast of top quality football.

The main fixture, at 3,00 pm. will be the senior teams, All Stars B v Goodyear.

Many of the older spectators will remember the lustre which used to cling to the name of Goodyear, when 20 yers ago, they concluded a three-year hold on the State premiership and in the same year were runners-up for the State Cup.

Kept alive

Though times have changed, it is good to see the old name kept alive in the Junior ranks.

Early fixtures, from 12 noon are:

Under 10: Kewpie B v Seven Hills.

Under 10: Waratah C v Kewpie C.

Under 16: Waratah B v Blacktown.

The all-important Granville representative trials will be held this Sunday.

The trials are: Under 10 and 18 at Harris Street ground; Under 16 at Jones Park; Under 14 at Progress Park No. 2; and Under 12 at Mona Park No. 2.

Secretaries and team managers are remided to have their plyer nominations in to the secretary, Mr L. Spicer, 1 West Street, Guildford, as soon as possible.

Victorian News and Views

From L. K. STONE

Hakoah last week's State leaders were defeated 3—1 by a considerably improved Polonia team in Saturday's match of the day at Olympic Park.

Hakoah, obviously Victoria's most incosistent team, did not relish the Poles' vigor and hard tackling and also lacked the team spirit displayed in their match against Juventus.

After critising Wemys last week on his doubtful fitness, I must record that this week he was one of the best players on the field and more like the tenatious Bob Wemys that we used to know.

Repeatedly he started attacking movements, and had the fast-moving Polonia forward line taken full advantage of his clever scheming, Hakoah would have lost by a greater margin.

Polonia's Bruce and Guardiani were the other stars for their side.

Hakoah's goalkeeper Mannering, made many brilliant saves.

Mannering, skipper Syd Thomas and ex-Sheffield Wednesday player Perry Hartley were Hakoah's best.

Bottari scored two goals, one from a penalty, and the other goal for the Poles was scored by Guardiani.

Slavia surprises

Hakoah's goalgetter was Anderson.

George Cross beat Box Hill 3—0 to go to the top of the ladder.

Copeland, McVane and Morrow were the scorers.

Perhaps the biggest surprise of the day was Slavia's win over Juventus.

The score was 1—0, Bell being the goalscorer after good play by Armstrong and Cook.

Wilhelmina recorded a 2—0 win over Geelong.

The Dutch were always on top and were much better than the score indicates.

Keuken missed several easy scoring chances, but Peterssen and Delgeorge each scored a good goal.

JUST were too strong for Yarra Park and recorded an easy 4—1 victory over the Greeks.

The winners were well served by Beattie, who scored two goals.

Hyndman, who got Yarra Park's goal, had a very good game.

Moreland easly won their match against Footscray 9—1.

Hodgeon and Smith scored three goals each for the winners, whose winger Oxton was in great from.

Early in the second half, two Footscray players were sent off and after that, the Coffee Drinkers lost interest.

Their lone goal was scored by Rice.

State League — Box Hill 0, George C. 3; Juventus 0, Slavia 1; Moreland 9, Foots. City 1; Polonia 3, Hakoah 1; Wilhelmina 2, Geelong 0; Yarra Pk 1, JUST 4.

"The good old days"

they would be on the mark.

When the selectors met to select a "Rep" team it was similar to the one suggested by the paper.

Naturally, because "Big Boss" held sway over his fellow selectors, who merely endorsed his team, which was in print some days before.

The "revolt" that was supposed to have "split the Federation asunder" turned out to a damp squib.

The "revolutionaries" were merely engaging in a debate, which is quite normal in democratic countries.

This debate, as we have pointed out earlier, ended in unanimous decisions.

This is a very healthy sign because it abolishes dictatorial powers such as were invested in a few individuals in soccer in the past.

No doubt some newspaper and radio commentators would like to see a dictatorship where news, of a kind, would be easily accessible to them.

So long as the "revolutionaries" stay in the Federation there is no chance of the code ever returning to the chaotic mess it was in for more than 30 years.

Last week we issued a challenge to a radio commentator who threatened to tell his 57 listeners, that is how many wrote us, to boycott the Federation—Costa Rica match last week.

Well! you all know the result.

The people came to see the Federation, not the Costa Ricans, and to further prove our point, let's take our Squad around Australia and note the crowds that flock to see them.

Oh, yes — there will be a boycott alright, but not the way some people intended it!

WITH THE COMPLIMENTS OF

Australian and Continental SMALLGOODS

FROM the SIDELINES

By TAD TARG

ALL SMILES.—

There wasn't a single "long" face in the crowd after the grand NSW win last Saturday.

Everyone had feeling of pride and satisfaction and no-one was ashamed of showing it.

There were happy smiles, laughter, joy, radiant faces and all.

Even supporters of opposition clubs talked to one another like brothers...

And the officials?

I have seldom seen a happier bunch of schoolboys...

MAKING THE GRADE.—

After only 2½ years and a few weeks of preparation we have been able to field a team at least equal to the imported one.

And it is only the beginning.

A new era in Australian soccer is just around the corner.

Our youngsters, under guidance of professional coaches, are coming along nicely and coming fast.

It won't be long now before Australia will be able to meet other countries on proper terms in representative games.

Just a few years maybe, just a few years.

DRAWING POWER.—

17,000 people came to watch Australia play the glamor team of Scottish football, Heart of Midlothian, last Saturday week.

Many of them were not so much interested in soccer, but turned up for sentimental reasons.

Some of them, of Scottish origin, wanted to see their countrymen in action.

Last Saturday, 18,500 (or 1500 more) paid a record £7000 to watch the NSW Federation play a comparatively unknown (in Australia) team from Costa Rica.

No sentiment nor national ties dragged these people to the Sports Ground.

They turned up to see good football.

And the attraction?

Our own, good NSW Federation team.

This, and nothing else, was the drawing power.

4 FOR 2 AND ALL THAT.—

From the very kick-off the crowd sensed an equal game and the possibility of a NSW win.

And from the very beginning one could feel the atmosphere of an international match.

For the first time in history we heard a contineous roar of the crowd, barracking for our team, encouraging the boys.

Not just an occasional handclasp, but a spontaneous roar.

It was like a true international, played on one of the teams' home ground.

That means most of the applause for the home team and only a polite hand every now and then for the opposition.

This was somewhat different to previous years, when crowds usually applauded visiting teams for outwitting our players and making them look silly.

INDIFFERENT ATTITUDE

Insidentally, this reminds me of a humorous incident that took place while an "Australia" v Ferencvaros (Hungary) match was in progress a few years back.

During an attacking move by the Hungarians, when the ball was being cleverly passed from one player to another without any of our fellows even touching it, all of a sudden one of our defenders cut in and got possession of the ball.

At this moment, a spectator in busman's uniform, shouted:

'Get out of the way, you big clot! You're spoiling the game!"

It was funny all right.

But it was a concentrated form of sarcasm directed at the lack of ability of our players.

It also typified the generally indifferent attitude of the then crowds.

Well, those days, I hope, are gone forevevr.

"BAUMGARTNER CONSCIOUS".—

Now a word or two of criticism.

In the Costa Rican game both teams seemed to have been a little "Baumgartner conscious".

Our players, when in possession, seemed to look for Leo to pass the ball to.

This was overdone, I feel, especially, when there were so many other good forwards in position.

The Latin-Americans also seemed to have been concentrating on Baumgartner, trying to keep him away from the ball.

This left more room for the rest of our forward line-up to move about.

Another mistake was in not making a full use of Saghi.

Time and time again we saw this fine, fast player cutting across into the empty spaces, but the ball never reached him there.

On the few occasions the ball was passed to him he made a good use of it, by either passing again or shooting.
